

Acute Care Pain Management - Adult

IMPACT REPORT 2023

OPEN educates and collaborates with providers and patients to implement non-opioid and non-pharmacologic pain management strategies and appropriate opioid prescribing for improved acute care outcomes.

OPEN
Evidence. Resources. Engagement.

EVIDENCE

6-10%
of surgical patients develop new persistent opioid use

NO CORRELATION
between patient satisfaction and amount of opioid prescribed

GREATER THAN 70%
of prescribed opioids are not used

NO CORRELATION
between probability of refill and amount of opioid prescribed

RESOURCES

ON DEMAND
25+ Continuing Medical Education Credits

TAILORED 1:1
provider consultation program for pain management strategies

20+ patient and provider EDUCATION MATERIALS

WWW.MICHIGAN-OPEN.ORG

<https://doi.org/10.56137/OPEN.000101>

ENGAGEMENT

5 Collaborative Quality Initiative partners implementing adult pain management BEST PRACTICE

Delivered HUNDREDS of educational presentations

OVER 1400 pain management resource downloads